

OLD EXPRESSIONS.

The following were handed to us by Judge H. M. Rorer and were culled from a number of old time sayings contained in collection of periodicals dating back 100 years ago. Some of these however, will sound familiar to Kentuckians of a later period.

Solution: "What and look at your saddle."

I came to borrow your candle moulds. Go to Scovel's store and buy ten yards of muslin—be thrifty, I'll send and buttons, (all of the old time Kentuckians will remember Scovel's store. It was located in the corner of the State and was the only store of note for miles around. This was in 1840.)

Don't forget the horses, judges and madder. I want to ride the hills.

Come by the evening carriage and get the note.

The salt guard is sitting upon the soap barrel.

Make a charger and tie up on the powder horn and get a box of lead and run bullets in the 120 moulds, and be sure and use a patch, and don't break the ram rod. Clean her with fow. Use split G. Da—they are the best.—Middleboro Record.

SELF-SACRIFICING INDIVIDUAL.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean that has never been known to be particularly friendly to democrats, says: "Having received the highest honor that men can confer upon their fellow man, and neither hoping nor desiring more, Grover Cleveland must still continue to do what he can for his country and his party, asking no reward for himself, but simply doing what he can for them. He must do this, and he does do it, not because he is an office-seeker, but because he is a good party man, a good citizen, and a patriot." It is interesting to be told by the republican paper that Mr. Cleveland asks no reward for himself, but is lying awake nights because of a desire to do what he can for his party. According to this republican paper, Mr. Cleveland is a "good party man." There are a great many democrats who will object to republican papers like the Inter-Ocean designating for them a "good party man." If Mr. Cleveland had been a good party man, he would not have owned his administration to stand sponsor for the abuses which the financiers sought to place upon this people; and if he had been a "good party man" he would not have deserted the party simply because it had taken a position that was not agreeable to Wall Street.

SPECIAL TERM AT JACKSON.

A special term of circuit court opened at Jackson Monday the 20th inst. The Louisville Times has the following on the instructions to the grand jury:

Judge Redwine's charge to the grand jury has the ring of sincerity. It leaves no possible excuse for failure on the ground that the situation was not clearly understood and places the responsibility where it belongs.

Breathitt, ex-Judge (indignation), is part of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. What is law in Louisville and the Blue Grass is to be made law in Breathitt.

Individual interpretation of the code is no longer to be permitted and the assassin or incendiary is to be treated with the same severity that characterizes his prosecution and punishment in the most law-abiding communities of the State. It is time that the lines should be drawn clearly.

In charging the grand jury Judge Redwine says rightly: "The presumption of innocence will prevail in the minds of many people until you, by your acts, rid yourselves of it. If, in any way, you fall short of your duty and any one of you has a friend to protect or an enemy to punish, you will not gain anything for yourselves, but will only injure Breathitt county. You will have no voice for the strong arm of the Commonwealth is to be to protect you. You are a part now of the Commonwealth's great system of the government and will be given all of the power that is allowed you by the Statutes." If the investigation is entered upon in this spirit there can be no fear of results.

There's Mike bantley! Look at him and behold a democrat! His star for the moment disappears behind the clouds. But only for a moment. It will come again, shining brighter than ever. It is impossible to down a good man, and here is one of the best.—Editorial in Courier-Journal.

"Beren Bill" Beckner's speech before the republican State convention elicited even Bill Owen's cowardly reference to the dead Gorbally! It was of Beren Bill that the Senator Beck once remarked that he had seen thirty pictures of Judas Iscariot, and no two of them looked alike; but every one of them looked like Bill Beckner.—Glasgow Times.

Old Joe Cannon, speaker of the next house of representatives, announces that he will not block currency legislation in the coming session. But what does Wall Street say? If that gambling institution wants currency legislation it will get it; if it doesn't want it, it will not have it. The probabilities are, however, that your uncle Joseph has already felt the Wall Street pulse.

The Chicago Record-Herald complains that the Washington postoffice has been run to a large extent on the spoils principle. Later developments indicate that other branches of the postoffice department have been run on the spoils system; and yet what did the Record-Herald expect when it gave its support to Mark Hanna and the greatest political machine that has ever been organized in the history of this country? Did the Record-Herald lay the flattering unction to its soul that the administration of public office by that machine would be in line with public interests? Did not that paper have every reason to believe that when it gave its support to Hanna's machine it helped to establish the system and pave the way for the evils which it now complains.—The Commonwealth.

The fact that there were over forty deaths from the use of toy pistols in the hands of children on the fourth of July, suggests the thought that either the toy pistols, or the children, or the fourth of July must be abolished. On second thought, the notion to abolish should not include the children; the faithful manner in which the toy pistol is discharging its duty and itself renders this superfluous.

No premium will be given for needful work and kitchen products this year, but sales will be advanced free this first day. Remember that the first day will have good shows.

Brutality Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unrelenting torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Gullick of Coates, Calif., writes, "For 16 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across electric bitters and it is the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 60c. Satisfaction guaranteed by druggist.

The western papers are referring to him as Senator J. Rat-Burton. Such is false and the ingratitude of republicans.

Married in Death's Shadow.

It often happens that a couple is married in marriage when one is afflicted with consumption or a deep-seated cold. There's danger in this—it is marrying in the shadow of death. Immediate steps should be taken to expel the trouble. There's nothing so quickly remove the danger as Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. It is equally safe and sure for lung and throat troubles. Cure is guaranteed by druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

By the by, what's the matter of Littlefield, or Mays, for the ruling nation? Wait! not be that saved the country from the ruin.

Indians will be mighty doubtful to the G. O. P. In 1904 if the emigrant colored brother is not lined back in due season.

Possibly Senator Hanna has never expected that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man of presidential title left in the republican party.

Since that 30-mile dash on a buckskin broncho, we readily comprehend how easy it was for Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles to capture Porto Rico.

We trust the bony Sharkey, of half-forgotten Santiago de Cuba does more of those bad trusts we do hope he will tell Phil Knox.
